Reds Vow To Release 7 Captives

Cleric Felled Flu Halts College Classes

By The Associated Press

Hong Kong flu has caused three more universities to begin Christmas holidays early—but several others tentatively scheduled resopnses this week. Among the victims of the illness is Richard Cardinal Cushing, archbishop of Boston.

In many hospitals, visiting privileges have been canceled or drastically restricted to avoid further spread of the malady. Classes at George Washington University were ordered suspended today as about 50 per cent of the school's 2,600 winter graduates were reported ill. The holiday at the Washington, D.C. school had been scheduled to begin Friday.

Four Virginia colleges, which normally would have closed later this week, shut down last Wednesday and Thursday. Starting today, three central Virginia hospitals began discouraging visitors to protect patients from the flu.

Central Michigan University canceled all classes until Jan. 6 while Northern Michigan University also closed a week early because of "flu-like" illnesses.

Two Maryland schools, closed last week, planned to resume classes this week in view of no significant outbreaks over the weekend.

In Cleveland, Ohio, three Catholic schools closed last week will open today.

In Wisconsin, health authorities said blood tests showed Type A incidence of the flu up as much as 17 per cent in some localities compared to 3 per cent in November. In Milwaukee, about 10 per cent of the schools' teachers were absent last week, while more than 20 Milwaukee-area hospitals cut down drastically on the number of visitors.

The resolution called for both closer economic ties with the Soviet Union and for more trade with the capitalist West. Trade with the West was a major feature of the pre-August reform plans. But the resolution put more stress on the stronger cooperation with the Soviets.

In San Francisco, the virus reportedly made little impact on the general populace, and the police department said 300 of its men were ill, mostly with the flu. The department said it did not know if it was the Hong Kong variety.

In Pittsburgh, hospitals reported an upsurge in flu-like illnesses, but pinpointed only five cases as being of the Hong Kong variety. To guard against any possible general outbreak, six hospitals restricted visiting privileges.

Cleveland hospitals reported that their staffs have been hit hard by illness, while absenteeism among police and firemen because of illness was at least three times the normal level.

Dr. E. Frank Ellis, Cleveland health director, said the worst may yet come. He caught the flu Thursday.

If one of the astronauts contracted a severe cold, the flight could be postponed or he could be replaced by a backup pilot.

Earlier this month, Borman, Lovell and Anders received inoculations against Hong Kong flu, as did about 1,200 persons at Cape Kennedy who are associated with launch preparations or who work closely with the astronauts.

The mayor's press office said Lindsay had directed Welsh to have a report of the investigation in Lindsay's hands "within 48 hours."

Sleeping on duty, or "cooperating," was described in today's New York Times as a common practice among New York City policemen.

The astronauts spent a relaxing Sunday during which all three attended church.

Astronauts Given

Pre-Flight Exams

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With the condition for their moon voyage smoothly under way, the Apollo 8 astronauts today received the final major physical examination for the flight.

Space-agency doctors began examining Air Force Col. Frank Borman; Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders in a session scheduled to last four to five hours to make certain the spacemen are in excellent shape for the mission.

The astronauts are scheduled to rocket into space at 7:51 a.m. EST Saturday, heading for a Christmas Eve orbit around the moon.

The lengthy countdown for the launching of the Saturn 5 rocket started on schedule at 7 p.m. Sunday when electrical power was fed to the Apollo 8 ship atop the 30-story-tall booster. Experts began systematic checking to make certain all elements

T.F. Man Is Appointed As Hansen Aide

Congressman-elect Orval Hansen, who has just completed a two-day visit in Twin Falls, announced Monday the appointment of J. Roger Detweller, Twin Falls, as his legislative assistant.

Mr. Detweller, an attorney, will assume his new duties during the first week of January when the 91st Congress convenes. He is presently serving as legislative counsel for the Mid-Atlantic Food Processors Association.

Mr. Detweller is a graduate of Twin Falls High School, College of Idaho, and Western, where he majored in political science and history, and the George Washington University Law School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Detweller, Twin Falls, who are presently living in North Carolina while on a construction assignment there.

The new legislative assistant is married and has two children, a son at Andover-Newton-Theological School, Newton Center, Mass.

Czechs To Keep Dubcek

Party Nods To Limited Reforms

PRAGUE (AP) — Fears of a new political upheaval in Czechoslovakia subsided today with the news that the Communist party will keep Alexander Dubcek as its chief and will go ahead with a limited program of economic reforms.

The party's central committee, which met last week, gave Dubcek, National Assembly Chairman Josef Smrkovsky and other progressives in the party leadership more time to amend party policy.

Workers and students met throughout the weekend preparing strikes and other protest actions if their more liberal favorites were defeated. But there was no mention of any leadership changes in the committee resolutions published today, and informed sources said there were none.

One resolution said, "The party takes the main line in the sphere of economic policy to be continuation of economic reforms which have been started."

But the resolution made clear that the economic program would be a delayed, weaker version of the plans made before the Soviet invasion Aug. 20.

It said the party would lay down a mandatory schedule for the reforms so that the central committee might discuss the document by mid-1969. In effect this shelved action for some six months.

There was no mention of the earlier more ambitious plans for widespread use of profit more-incentives and free market regulation of prices by supply and demand. Instead it said only that some factories and some industries would be freed from some dictates of the central planners.

Summary, Extended Outlook

Light snow continues to fall in form of showers at midday from Magic Valley east over Southern Idaho. Colder air will be in the mid-teens in moved inland at the surface and aloft over eastern Oregon and Southern Idaho. Temperatures near midday were below freezing east of the Cascades while readings in the upper 40s were reported along the Washington and Oregon coast.

Rising pressure over the Pacific Northwest will bring decreasing precipitation to Eastern Oregon and Southern Idaho during the day with considerable clearing from the West overnight. It will be colder throughout the valley areas this afternoon and tonight.

The next Pacific storm system will increase cloudiness Wednesday with a slight rise in temperatures. Periods of snow are likely again Thursday and Friday.

Temperatures this morning ranged from 21 degrees at the Aberdeen Experiment Station to the low 30s in Magic and Southwest Idaho valleys. Eastern Oregon temperatures have been in the mid-20s.

Who Pays The Bills?

From The Idaho State Journal

Taxpayers don't want to pay the bills. That's the logical reading of the Nov. 5 election results.

Of a proposed total of more than $9 billion in bonds put up to the voters on election day, The Wall Street Journal estimates that at least 42 per cent, and possibly more, was rejected. In normal times—for example, the years 1964 to 1967—between 73 per cent and 77 per cent of bond issues were approved.

Taxpayers tossed overboard bond proposals for better schools, hospitals, antipollution devices, parks, and mass transit systems. Congressional Quarterly suggests, moreover, that in the 1968 session of Congress "a broad agreement also developed that the federal government should have a role in providing financial assistance to states and localities for a variety of programs."

The record of Nov. 5 is mixed, but the general verdict of the taxpayers was, in the words of Gov. J. H. Chafee of Rhode Island—who incidentally was a defeated Republican—"a mandate not to spend."

Virginia by landslide proportions scrapped its pay-as-you-go fiscal policy of more than 40 years and authorized the issuance of $81 million in bonds for higher education and hospitals. "Over and over," The Richmond Times-Dispatch reported, "(administration leaders) emphasized that failure of the bond issue would force the state either to jettison critical needs or to authorize another tax increase."

Alaska voters accepted all but one of eight bond issues for a total of almost $50 million, including $10 million for schools and $8.5 million for the University of Alaska. Suburban communities surrounding Washington, D. C., approved $208 million in general-obligation bonds for a rapid-transit system. New Jersey voters approved bond issues involving $600 million, the biggest total ever.

But Los Angeles voters turned down a proposed $2.5 billion county rapid-transit issue. Rhode Island defeated a $10-million loan for hospitals. Oregon rejected $30 million for ocean-beach parklands. The taxpayer, on a general basis, went out on strike.

The significance of Nov. 5 will be seen in January. Most state legislatures will be meeting in 1969. In almost every state the lawmakers will be facing the problem of raising more money. Although the federal government currently collects about two-thirds of all taxes, the fastest-growing area of taxation has been at the state and local levels.

Schools are the concern almost everywhere. Pupils in New York City will have to give up 10 holidays and put in longer hours to make up for a 36-day teachers' strike. The trouble in Ohio has been failure of voters in referenda to approve tax rate increases for school costs. The districts are temporarily broke.

State and city debts have skyrocketed since World War II, but federal debt has gone up only about 20 per cent. In the cities, according to a study by Prof. Richard Notter of New York University for the National Commission on Urban Problems, property taxes fall heaviest on the poor. They amount to a sales tax, he estimates, of as much as 24 per cent on slum housing. In the face of a general taxpayer revolt, this kind of analyzing is most disturbing.

ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK

Report: Nixon And The Governors

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. — As President-elect Nixon met privately with Republican Governors last Friday afternoon during their winter meeting here, outspoken Gov. Norbert Telemann of Nebraska brought into the open what he meant by his "open invitation" to the governors. Telemann told Nixon for the new President to communicate effectively with the people. Consequently, Telemann continued, "it was a good idea if he worked through the 31 Republican Governors to reach the people."

Without making commitments, Nixon nodded agreement. But Telemann's question reflected apprehension about the President-elect Spiro T. Agnew as the go-between. To the puzzlement of some Governors, Nixon told them he planned to keep them abreast of foreign affairs developments.

Most important was the image of quiet confidence he gave. In private conversation over cocktails, he said some Governors had expressed fear that Nixon was informally but widely discussed among the Governors here.

On one level, the Governor recognized that Nixon received little pre-convention support from them; never had been close to them, and might well ignore them from the White House. But on a deeper level, the Governors were worried that Nixon's personal "magnetism" from everybody but his intimates during both the campaign and the transition period might continue during his presidency, to his great disadvantage.

Actually, Nixon did much to still these fears Friday when he met all 31 Governors in small groups at the Palm Springs home of Walter Annenberg, publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Nixon promised the Governors they would have control of Federal programs in their states. He pledged that the often-slipshod liaison between statehouses and the White House during the Johnson administration would be improved by Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew as the go-between. To the puzzlement of some Governors, Nixon told them he planned to keep them abreast of foreign affairs developments.

But on a deeper level, the Governors were worried that Nixon's personal "magnetism" from everybody but his intimates during both the campaign and the transition period might continue during his presidency, to his great disadvantage.

Actually, Nixon did much to still these fears Friday when he met all 31 Governors in small groups at the Palm Springs efforts.

While leaving Palm Springs less apprehensive than when they arrived, however, the Governors were not fully satisfied. They complained that the President-elect, for all his reassurances, gave precious little hard information in the meetings at the Annenberg home.

"He talked indirectly—in paragraphs, you might say," one Governor told us.

Moreover, some Governors are still muttering about the Nixon campaign which, in many states, drained almost all Republican money. When Governors seeking election pleaded for funds, they were told that they could ride home on Nixon's coattails. Thus, those who in fact ran ahead of Nixon are now self-righteous about it.

Such aggravation has been compounded in the transition period when Governors, including the few who backed Nixon, the nomination, had almost no contact with the President-elect until the Palm Springs meeting. That gave rise to their fear that he will be isolated by his huddled-down young aides in the White House.

With this backdrop, the Governors here were surprisingly querulous on relatively minor matters. Western Governors grumbled about a possible non-Westerner as Secretary of the Interior; farm Governors grumbled about a possible non-farmer to supplement Agnew's as Secretary of Agriculture; most Governors grumbled about Nixon's long-range intention to purge Ray Blas as Republican National Chairman.

Besides, all did not go as well here between Nixon and the Governors as was advertised.

An imaginative plan by the Governors to place their representatives in all departments of the Federal government to facilitate state-Federal relations was evicted by Agnew's staff, apparently acting under the Nixon direction.

Once the Nixon administration actually begins, an almost automatic will the traditional honeymoon period start. Then, the complaints of the Governors probably will turn to chagrin. But the image they displayed at Palm Springs shows that the image left by the Nixon campaign and transition period poses more of a problem than Nixon insiders suspect.

Silver Lining

Things are looking up. There have been so many dark clouds hanging over our horizon, even a little light appears bright, warm, reassuring.

The war in Vietnam is de-escalating. The United States is phasing out of far Eastern involvements.

Inflation, which has threatened the dollar with drastic devaluation, still does—but the new administration is determined to curtail federal spending which has been feeding that fire. Last summer some Europeans—refusing to cash American dollars; now they're begging for them.

American campuses are less turbulent. Many administrators have deeded expulsion for chronic troublemakers, have tightened their grip, reinforced discipline, rewon respect.

Similarly, big-city officials have adopted a harder line against burning, looting and guerrilla war.

There remains too much crime and too little punishment, but an increasing awareness of the price we are paying for lenientency's counteraction in this area.

Also, some of us are convinced that when our most unpopular foreign war has phased out domestic restlessness will subside.

Most all business barometers are rising. Corporate profits, though purposefully dampened by the recent excise tax, were record high in the third quarter.

Personal income increased last month, but at a less inflationary rate than therefore.

More to come—on pollution—habitat by polluting air and water; but much research effort promises antinuclear power, potable sea water, electric power.

Simultaneously, medical research is making Dunyan strides.

In the year since the first human heart was transplanted, 100 others were. Next year, 300.

Three kinds of heretofore incurable cancer have responded to chemical treatment. Among all cancer victims, the recovery rate is now one-in-three.

From research for space exploration, we may never go to the moon, we are harvesting—some 40,000 new or improved methods of materials every year.

Odds are that when you have filled in those next 365 blanks on the calendar, you will be healthier, wealthier and wiser.

Merry Christmas!

And Happy New Year!

About Eczema

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My girl friend has a bad case of eczema, on the front of both hands and almost to the elbows. It's like pieces of raw meat in some parts. She went to a skin specialist, but it didn't do much good. She gets sick just looking at it. Can you help? —Miss L.L.

Maybe I can help. If you (and your friend) will listen carefully.

Young folks can manage to sleep on anything, hard or soft, bumpy or soggy, but as we get older, our spines need more support. Many get relief from a simple bed board—a sheet of plywood or similar stiff support placed between spring and mattress, to minimize sagging. A stiffer mattress and spring can help.

If that suggestion doesn't help, a careful examination, including X-rays of the spine, should be in order.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have about seven blackheads in each ear. How can I get them out? —M.B.

At the drug store you can get a comedo (blackhead) expander, a simple little gadget which lets you remove blackheads with gentle pressure instead of squeezing.

What are ulcers? How should they be treated? What can you do to help rid yourself of ulcers and stay rid of them? For answers, read Dr. Thosteson's helpful booklet, "How To Heal Peptic Ulcers and Keep Them Healed." For your copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes all readers—but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

We Expect To Be Taken?

WASHINGTON — As a car owner, I am unable to summon any substantial shock over testimony on Capitol Hill that there are books in the automobile repair business. Most of us, I would guess, expect to get taken when we lead our poor old horseless carriage into the repairman's den.

But the hearings before a Senate Anti-trust and Monopoly subcommittee have been notable for the testimony that the scandal is worse than the average citizen believed, and that Congress finally has heard the whimpering of its victims. Possibly our politicians will find the courage to try to legislate a touch of honesty into the racket.

I was particularly interested in testimony the other day by Denver man who operates an automobile diagnostic business, Glenn F. Kriegel, whose company performs no repairs, recommends no repair shops and sells no parts, asserted that only 50 out of 5,000 cars found defective in his shop subsequently were repaired according to manufacturers' specifications. That 1 per cent average must confirm the fears of a majority of the nation's car owners, and may boost the rate of apoplexy among us.

No small potatoes are involved in the Senate hearings. Car owners spend an estimated $20 to $25 billion yearly to repair the vehicles they drive, almost as much as the $29 billion they spend annually to buy new cars, according to Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich. This accounts for 4 per cent of all consumer spending in this wonderful, mixed-up country.

Moreover, Hart reports that parts prices increased 32 per cent from 1960 to 1967, and climbing an additional 7 to 10 per cent across the board, boost occurred in the past 14 months. That's big dough, even if you own six Cadillacs and three Lincoln's.

Although few car owners will downrate the cupidity of the service men they have encountered, some witnesses have put most of the onus on this outrageous situation on the manufacturers. For example, William N. Leonard, an economics professor who has written books on the subject, pins the scandal on manufacturers who pressure their dealers to sell cars and never mention any jazz about servicing them.

"Dealerships are not terminated by manufacturers for having substandard service facilities or for poor reputations for service," said Leonard. "But dealers do lose their franchises for failure to meet sales quotas." The reason, of course, is that Detroit's profits derive largely from selling cars to dealers, and only slightly from dealers' services to customers.

Some of the testimony has been downright scary, too. Diagnostic Kriegel told the subcommittee about hundreds of cars diagnosed by his shop immediately after they had passed a semi-annual state safety inspection in Colorado. More than 90 per cent of these cars, Kriegel said, failed to meet state standards for headlight aim, more than 50 per cent had alignment or suspension defects, and more than 25 per cent had defects in their (gulp) brake systems.

Among those angered by the testimony was Sen. Roman Hruska, R-Neb., but not for the obvious reason. Hruska charged that Economist Leonard had "pilloried, excoriated and crucified the industry most unfairly," and asked Leonard if he would prefer "the Russian system."

Even for a United States Senator, Hruska's reaction smacked of the adolescent. A body does not have to be a crusader for Kosygin to resent tradesmen who steal him blind. In an economy more or less based on free enterprise, the car repair racket for a long time has held up the entire automobile industry to scorn and distrust, and those who would make it an honest woman might better be armed as defenders of capitalism's way of life.

In any event, the public should be hoping that Congress will look even more deeply into the subject when it reconvenes next month, and the devil take those free-spending and persuasive lobbyists from Detroit. Even without the Senate hearings, the abuses of the car repair racket were obvious, and folks like Roman Hruska should try to understand that it is not subversive to demand your money's worth—but simply good, red-blooded, Puritan-fathers, American horse sense.

Power Line Energized By BPA Workers

BURLEY—Bonneville Power Administration's office personnel at Burley energized this week a new 115,000 volt Swan Valley-Retro power line which runs from Swan Valley, Idaho, to Jackson Hole, Wyo.

The crew operations and maintenance crew located at Burley completed the power line hookup and took part in ceremonies at Jackson, Wyo., marking the completion of the line.

Burley men taking part in the operation were Dale Brooks, area operations and maintenance supervisor; Clarence Stedman, foreman; Ken Dilton, line foreman; Ralph Falchuk, electrical foreman; Floyd Actis, meter relay engineer, and Marion Judd, electrician, "energized" the 37-mile long line, the longest built by Bonneville Power Administration in this region.

The line provides an additional supply for the rapidly growing area of southeastern Idaho and western Wyoming served by Lower Valley Power and Light Co., according to Guy Hughes, Idaho Falls, Bonneville Power Administration official.

It was constructed by MacGregor Utility Construction Co., Boise, and the clearing contractor was John M. King Co., Tucumcari, Wash.

The line was built through some of the most rugged terrain on the North American continent, according to Mr. Hughes. About 24 miles of it traversed United States Forest Service land and the Bonneville Power Administration worked in cooperation with the Forest Service to ensure the least possible damage to the natural beauty of the area.

Special methods were used in clearing the land and in the construction that have never been employed before in projects in order to preserve the beauty of the land, Hughes stated.

Initially, the line will be maintained jointly by the Bonneville Power Administration, Area Operations and Maintenance personnel located at Burley and the Lower Valley Power and Light Co. line crews.

WILLIAM C. WHITAKER, chief pilot for Janiss Airways, brings the newly purchased twin-engine Beech Queen Aire to the Hailey airport. First flight for the new craft was taken Saturday when he flew to Salt Lake City. A second Beech Queen Aire also has been put into service by Janiss Airways.

All-Weather Plane Begins Flights For Janiss Airways

HAILEY — A new twin-engine Beech Queen Aire, equipped for all-weather flying, was flown on its first flight by Janiss Airways Saturday by William C. Whitaker, chief pilot.

Mr. Whitaker and Roland Smith, Boise, picked up the 10-passenger plane last week in Chicago. The craft has special ski rack compartments and additional luggage space for skiers en route to Sun Valley.

Two daily flights are scheduled between Sun Valley and Salt Lake City and Sun Valley and Boise by James Keele, Ontario, Ont., who has worked for the Janiss Co. before. Part-time pilots will be Mr. Smith and Mike Jones, Ontario. Rick Knowles, also Ontario, will be in charge of ground operations.

To accommodate storage and deicing facilities for the two new 52-foot-wing planes, it has been necessary to widen the doors, which were 40 feet wide.

This work will be completed in the next few days and when the 58- by 68-foot hangar is completed there will be enough room to accommodate two smaller transient planes in addition to the Beech Queen Aire.

Samuelson Backs Idea On Courts

HOUSE JAM — A proposal to provide county commission control over a lower court system has drawn favorable reaction from Gov. Don Samuelson. The measure endorsed Saturday by the Judicial Council calls for enactment of most of the 1967 Court Reform Bill, with certain modifications.

The bill was passed by the 1967 legislature, but vetoed by Samuelson.

Samuelson said he has not had a chance to study the new proposal, but "it sounds all right to me."

Samuelson had been opposed to the provisions for control and financing lower courts.

"I don't want this thing to be a revenue measure," he said. A key modification in the council proposal would set up a "magistrate commission" in each of Idaho's seven judicial districts.

The commission would be composed of one county commissioner from each county in the district, one district judge and a mayor appointed by the governor. The county commissioners would have majority control.

These commissions would set the number of magistrates in the district, name magistrates and set their salary levels, and establish locations for magistrate courts.

District judges of the district would have to confirm magistrate commission decisions.

The overall proposal would replace the present five-level court system—justice of the peace, probate, city magistrate, district and supreme courts—with a three-level system—magistrate, district and supreme courts.

The council proposal calls for all courts to make their budget requests through the supreme court, which in turn would present a combined request to the legislature.

The proposal would have 60 per cent of the allocation for magistrate courts distributed on a population basis and the other 10 per cent at the discretion of the supreme court.

The council also recommends certain increases in filing fees, with certain portions of those fees going into the state general fund to offset appropriations for the magistrate system.

Electors Vote

BOISE (AP) — Idaho's four presidential electors—Republicans named in the general election—were to meet today.

They will cast their electoral college ballot for president-elect Nixon.

Congress will canvas electoral college voting early next year.

Lewiston Police Arrest 23 Youths

On Drug Charges

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — Police Chief Edward Lucas said 23 youths, ages 17-21, would be arrested today on charges stemming from a marijuana purchase.

They were arrested Friday night, he said.

Lucas said that more than 150 young people would be arrested or questioned in the next two weeks.

Police, he said, have "barely scratched the surface" of marijuana sales and use in the Lewiston-Clarkston, Wash., area.

More than two pounds of marijuana has been confiscated, he said.

Snow, Icy Conditions Make Highways In Idaho Hazardous, Police Indicate

By The Associated Press

Idaho's major highways were in hazardous condition early this morning, according to the state Department of Highways and Law Enforcement.

Chains were required for driving on Lookout Pass on North Idaho's Interstate 90 and U.S. Highway 10. Use of chains was advised on State 21 from Idaho City to Stanley.

Other conditions, by the route: U.S. 93—Grangeville, Spirit Lake, Craigmont and Whitefish Hill, snow floor and snowing; McCall, Council, Midvale Hill, Weiser and Marsing to Oregon; broken snow floor and snowing; Bonners Ferry, snow floor and drifting; Culdesac Canyon, snow floor; Plummer, Coeur d'Alene and Sandpoint, icy spots and snowing; Cusdace Canyon, snow floor; Moscow to Genesee, icy spots.

"It seemed the best thing to do," she said. "We all had to learn each other's language and in-the-mountain, we got along with gestures and sort of motioning kind of communication."

Mrs. Abbott and the children made an impact on this village, where the population hovers around 100 and the addition of the children more than doubled the youthful population.

"It was hard at first," she said. "But we're not having any problems now. Most of our neighbors are wonderful."

For the past year, an anonymous benefactor has provided the money for Mrs. Abbott to build an extra five rooms on the 11-room house she acquired and has furnished the entire kitchen.

She meets expenses by selling home medical remedies, herbs, preserves and home-processed food and by getting contributions from people sympathetic to her efforts.

Public Power Pondered

U.S. Highway Policy Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal to give the public more fields from several states, the voice in the location and design of roadbuilding industry and Mus of federal highways has started hearings before route decisions and a second before the design is approved.

The proposal, which will be argued in Transportation Department hearings starting today, calls for more public hearings before final decisions are made.

Joining the Transportation Department, which made the proposal, in backing the plan are the Agriculture and Interior departments and the payors and congressmen from several of the nation's large metropolitan areas.

Volpe, who owns a construction company and ran the nation's road program under President Eisenhower, is not expected to testify in the hearings.

Department sources said Transportation Secretary Alan S. Boyd is determined to get the policy through ahead of the coming Nixon administration. But they say that even if he does, the new administration could reverse it.

Advocates of the plan say the new approach is needed to keep highway officials from arbitrarily slicing through the cities and the countryside with massive roadways that break up neighborhoods and blight the landscape.

Opponents have charged that the move would involve highways in controversy that could lead to excessive delays. Some have said it could virtually paralyze plans for urban freeways.

A key requirement of the plan would require one public hearing before route decisions and a second before the design is approved.

The department said in announcing the proposal that "Currently, no more than one hearing is required in a proposed new highway location, which generally has taken place at an early stage of the highway planning sequence."

"Urban freeways in particular have come under intense criticism recently in many cities and many proposed urban segments of the Interstate highway system have been stalled."

Since it was proposed Oct. 23 the Department Transportation says the plan has drawn written comments from about 2,000 individuals or groups. A department spokesman said those for and against are about equally divided.

The proposal is the latest in a series by the department to minimize the impact of freeways on city residents. Boyd previously has led the way on use of teams of designers from many fields to cooperate in making freeways blend with their surroundings.

Clairvoyants Stir Furor Over Future Of Organization

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — A meeting in the lounge of a Palermo hotel, Madame Rosa, released these predictions for 1969: "The Italian-Uta will be defeated in March." Aristotle Onassis and his wife will be separated... Actress Sophia Loren will have no children... President Nixon will survive an assassination attempt... De Gaulle will retire from political life.

Nevertheless, it will not be an unlucky year and there are many surprises in store for us."

"Sounds Of Christmas" Is Theme Of Music Club Meet

The program, "Sounds of Month," "Brightest and Best" Christmas, was presented by "Morning Star" by Reginald Heber. The hymn is part of an anthem by John P. Harding in 1892. The words are appropriate for Christmas. It was sung by Mrs. Bill Watt, accompanied by Mrs. Vincent.

Participating in the program was a trio, Mrs. David Mead, soprano; Mrs. Danner, violin, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Hurley, piano. Mrs. Danner started playing the violin when she was three years old and has been concert mistress in several schools in Oregon. She has taught violin for 16 years. Mrs. Mead studied voice at the American Conservatory in Chicago and won the title of Best Woman Singer of Gary.

Mrs. Edgar Vincent gave the story of the "Hymn of the Month," "Morning Star" by Reginald Heber. The hymn is part of an anthem by John P. Harding in 1892. The words are appropriate for Christmas. It was sung by Mrs. Bill Watt, accompanied by Mrs. Vincent.

Mrs. Carl Boyd presided at the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Berna Detors. Ten dollars was donated to the Idaho Youth Ranch, Rupert, and Christmas remembrances will be taken to two former members who are shutins.

A letter was read by Mrs. Max Van Andelen from a former member, Mrs. Grace Blake, Van Nuys, Calif.

Mrs. Pearl Buchanan, program chairman, read the "Legend of the Poinsettia" and several Christmas poems. A travelogue of the Hawaiian Islands, as recorded by Elizabeth Nesbitt, was given by her mother, Mrs. Kenneth Nesbitt.

A gift exchange was held. Mrs. Leonard Albee was co-hostess.

NOTICE OF FITTING

Notices of fitting will be received by the Idaho Board of Highway Directors of the State of Idaho, on Highway 3211 West State Street, Boise, Idaho, until two o'clock P.M. on the 7th day of January, 1969, for the construction of a section of roadway south of Castleford (City Grade) known as Idaho Federal Aid Highway No. S-7042 in Twin Falls County.

The State Highway Department, in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (74 Stat. 252) and the regulations of the Department of Commerce, will make every reasonable effort to such Advertisements to all bidders that it will affirmatively insure that the contract award will be made to the lowest bidder who will be awarded to the lowest bidder without discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin.

NOTICE TO FEDERAL-AID CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTORS

We do not propose the contractor that he does not maintain segregated facilities as required by Title VI.

Proposed must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the requirements of Section 106 of the Federal Requirements and Conditions of the Idaho Standard Specifications for Highway Construction, Edition of 1968.

Plans, specifications, form of contract, proposed forms and other information of the Department of Highways, Boise, Idaho, and from the District Engineer at Shoshone, Idaho.

A charge of five dollars ($5.00) will be made for each set of plans, specifications and forms made available to the Department of Highways, State of Idaho.

The right is reserved to reject any proposal which is deemed best for the State of Idaho.

No proposal will be considered unless it is submitted in the form of a certified Check or a Cashier's Check drawn on an Idaho bank, made payable to the Department of Highways, State of Idaho.

Today's Market And Financial Report

Stocks

2:30 P. M. SUMMARY
NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market settled irregularly lower into this afternoon after erasing an early advance. Trading was fairly active.

Losses slightly outnumbered gains after a gathering down trend wiped out an early advantage of 200 more issues on the upside. The market in early trading kept momentum from the brash rally of Friday, but there was nothing new in the way of incentive, so traders took profits.

Occidental Petroleum, down about 2 points, was boosted to the top of the most-active list by a block of 144,100 shares. American Cement, a fractional loser, also was among the volume leaders, thanks to a big block, one of 90,000 shares.

Trading interest concentrated on some issues in special situations.

United Airlines held about half of a 2-point gain. AMK Corp. had agreed to increase its offer for acquisition of United Franchise. AMK fell nearly 3.

Youngstown Sheet climbed about 4 points on news that Lykes Corp. was attempting to accumulate 2.5 million shares of Youngstown. Lykes canceled an early 1-point gain and traded about unchanged.

Among other very active issues, Pennzoil and Zapata Norcross rose more than 2 each and Rapid-American more than a point.

All Big Three motors declined fractionally, Chrysler nearly a point.

Anaconda rose close to 3 points as it was featured on the front cover of a financial magazine.

Zenith gained 1. General Foods, Phelps Dodge, Control Data and Commonwealth Edison were among losers of a point or so.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Oakland Tops San Diego 34-27; Forces Playoff For Western Loop Title

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The Oakland Raiders, sparked by Rodger Blid's scoring intercept and Daryle Lampkin's three touchdown passes, forced a playoff for the American Football League Western Division title next Sunday for the right

Landry Says Dallas Is Due For Big Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Dallas' Tom Landry shrugged off a sub-standard, cold weather performance by quarterback Don Meredith in Sunday's 28-10 National Football League victory over New York, then tune-up for the Cowboys' Eastern Conference title showdown at Cleveland next Saturday, and said he thinks Dallas is due to win a little game.

But the Cowboys' coach was openly concerned over the possible loss of running back Craig Bayham and defensive tackle Jethro Pugh, sidelined by knee injuries early in the regular season finale at frigid, windswept Yankee Stadium.

"He just didn't have the feel for the game today," Landry said of his No. 1 quarterback. "He was throwing the ball all right, but he was overshooting.

He didn't figure to go more than one half with him anyway, so it doesn't make much difference. We just decided to bring in Morton a little earlier."

Landry said he doesn't intend to make a similar early change if Meredith comes up with a cold hand against the Browns.

"I'd leave him in there," he said. "We'll win with him next week."

"Bayham suffered slightly strained knee ligaments on the Cowboys' first offensive series and sat out the rest of the game. Pugh was helped to the sideline after sustaining a similar injury in a second quarter pileup and didn't return.

"Those are two big, key guys," said Landry. "They've got to recover this week or we're really in trouble."

The temperature was 21 degrees at kickoff time, with cold winds gusting up to 25 miles per hour. The Cowboys expect much of the same kind of weather at Cleveland.

"It was good for us to get in it this week, to get the feel of it," Landry said. "It could be 10 degrees warmer or colder Saturday, but we know it'll be cold."

"It's there's any problem, getting up for it, then it's time to get out of football," the coach said. "We can't make any bookings past Saturday. That's the big one."

"We've been knocking on the door for two years now. I'd say it's time we got our foot in."

Washington went in front 7-3 just four plays after he entered the game. A pass interference penalty on a 43-yard toss from Theofides to Charlie Taylor set up another touchdown on a two-yard run with a minute to go.

The victory snapped a four-game losing streak for Washington to give the Redskins a 5-0 record. The Lions, able to win only once in their last nine games, closed at 4-2.

Wayne Walker kicked a 17-yard field goal for the only Detroit score in the third quarter.

Redskins' rookie safety Jim Smith suffered a broken neck in a freak collision with a teammate in the first half.

A hospital, which confirmed the fracture, had no immediate comment on his condition.

Smith had fallen on the football after Detroit tight end Charlie Sanders dropped a pass. Redskins' linebacker Jim Carroll, rushing toward the play, struck Smith on the head with his knee.

Benvenuti Is Swamped By Fight Offers

SAN REMO, Italy (AP) — Handsome Nino Benvenuti still had his world middleweight championship Sunday, a contract for a western movie to be made in Spain, and plenty of offers for his next title defense.

"I'd like to make my next title fight in the United States again," said the Italian champion after he jolted his way to a decisive 15-round decision over Don Fullmer of Salt Lake City, Utah, in a fight televised to the United States Saturday night.

Although the 30-year-old Italian didn't mention opponents, there is a strong possibility he will meet either former middleweight king Emilio Griffith in a fourth title fight in New York, or former welterweight champion Luis Rodriguez in Miami Beach.

Benvenuti, in his first defense since he regained the 180-pound division title from Griffith in New York last March 4, chopped off Fullmer's face with his snapping left jabs and occasional left hooks to the head. The American was cut around both eyes and on the forehead, and he bled from the nose.

Benvenuti, a prohibitive 8-1 favorite, weighed 160 pounds to Fullmer's 159. The champion's record is 78-21. Fullmer's record is 46-14-3. Fullmer lost a 12-round decision to Benvenuti in 1958 before Nino won the world title.

Graebner Is Taken Off U. S. Team

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Donald Dell, United States Davis Cup captain, dropped a bombshell Monday and left veteran coach Graebner off the four-man squad slated to meet Australia in the Challenge Round at Adelaide Dec. 20-28.

Dell, required to make the selection 10 days before the match, named Arthur Ashe, Jim Smith, Bobby Lutz and Charlie Pasarell.

Graebner, who has played five Davis Cup single matches, had been expected to play No.

Single Donald Ashe with Smith and Lutz, the Americans' doubles-champion, performing in the Indian Wells tournament.

Dell, making the announcement prior to taking the team right to make one change in the round five days before the Challenge Round and thus opened the way for Graebner still to make the team if his form warrants it.

Dell said there were three reasons for leaving Graebner off the team. "He is not physically fit because of recent illness," the American captain said. "He has had practically no match competition since Sept. 31 and he is not in form."

Less than three minutes later, Lamond bombed the Chargers with a 55-yard pass to Warren Wolfe, who beat San Diego easily. Jim Gobert.

The Chargers got back into the game with a bizarre touchdown.

Nehemiah Wilson fumbled a Chargers punt and several players had a shot at the ball before San Diego's Ken Dyer grabbed it in the end zone.

Football finale in the National Football League.

The Cowboys, warming up for next Saturday's date at Cleveland for the Eastern Conference title, made liberal use of reserves in the contest that started at 21-degree temperature at know-fringed Yankee Stadium.

The Capitol Division champs forced the Giants into a 7-7 finish for the second straight year.

Pete Gogolak's 12-yard field goal put the Giants out front in the first quarter while Don Meredith, the Cowboys' regular quarterback, was completing only one of 10 passes and had one intercepted before Morton took over in the second period.

Morton promptly took Dallas to a 13-yard pass to Dallas for a score on a 13-yard pass to Hayes.

Using Walt Garrison and Les Shoy as running backs the Cowboys remained in complete control.

Green Bay Crushes Bear Hopes For Title; Takes Win Behind Unknown Sub

CHICAGO (AP) — The Green Bay Packers and third-string quarterback Don Horn closed out Chicago hopes of claiming the Central Division title in the National Football League with a 28-27 victory Sunday when a 17-point fourth period rally by the Bears fell short.

Horn, 23, out of the Army only 10 days, took over for injured Zuke Bratkowski in the first quarter. He fired two touchdown bombs and set up a third with a 42-yard aerial to mark, the Bears with defeat.

Minnesota will represent the Central Division in the Western Conference playoff next Sunday at Baltimore. The Vikings defeated Philadelphia 24-17 Sunday for the Central Division title in the National Football League with a 28-27 victory Sunday when a 17-point fourth period rally by the Bears fell short.

The Bears, down by 18 points in the fourth quarter, scored two touchdowns and a field goal and got another shot at a triumph in the closing minutes but failed to get into shape for what would have been a winning field goal.

The Packers proved tough from the outset. Green Bay's

Travis Williams fumbled the opening kickoff and Bob Wallace recovered on the Packer four. But the Bears couldn't punch it over and had to settle for a 14-yard field goal, the first of two by Mac Percival.

On the first play from scrimmage after the ensuing kickoff, Bratkowski, who has been filling in for injured Bart Starr, hurried a 32-yard touchdown pass to Boyd Dowler.

The Packers led 21-10 at half-time.

The first time the Packers got the ball in the second half, they marched 83 yards for their fourth touchdown, Horn hitting Dowler on a 25-yard pass.

The Bears trailed 28-10 but came back with a 75-yard drive in 12 plays with Ronnie Bull dashing the final eight early in the last quarter.

The Bears' defense aroused Chicago held the Packers and drove to the Green Bay 10. This time they had to settle for a 26-yard field goal by Percival to make it 28-20 with 10:51 left.

Seven minutes later, Concannon hurled a 51-yard touchdown pass to Gordon. Percival's conversion made it 28-27 with 3:38 left.

Kimberly appears to have the steepest week lined up, among

Class B teams. The Bulldogs, who won their first dual Thursday, but haven't been beaten badly, will be at Declo Tuesday and Valley Thursday. Those teams finished one-two in the Kimberly tournament last week with Kimberly a close third

— one point behind runner-up Declo.

A total of nine dual matches plus a tournament will be held during the week. Wood River will host a one-day affair beginning at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Tuesday's dual matches will send Oakley to Raft River, Buil-

Vikings Wrap Up Crown Behind Knapp's Two Touchdown Tosses

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings clinched the National Football League's Central Division championship Sunday by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 24-17.

Kapp threw 57 yards to halfback Bill Brown in the second period to equal an earlier Philadelphia touchdown. He fired 20 yards to Gene Washington for a third-period score that gave the Vikings the lead, and wrapped it up in the final quarter by running two yards for a touchdown.

Fred Cox booted three conversions and a 17-yard field goal for the winner.

Philadelphia lost its 12th in 14 games, but the Eagles made it a tough victory for the Vikings on a bitter, 32-degree day.

Trailing in the third period, 14-7, the Eagles marched from their 20 to the Minnesota 20 on passes of 23, 10 and 16 yards by Sned.

Three running plays, however, gained only seven yards and Baker kicked a 29-yard field goal that made it 14-10.

Early in the fourth period, the Eagles were forced to kick from their end zone and Charlie West returned the punt 13 yards to the Philadelphia 22.

Brown and Dave Osborne alternated to carry the ball before Kapp turned left end for the touchdown from the two. Cox converted to make it 21-10.

A fumble on a Philadelphia punt set the Eagles up on the Vikings' 12-yard line and led to the losers' final touchdown. Sned passed for 12 yards to Fred Hill for the score.

Cox wound up the scoring with two minutes remaining when he booted a 17-yard field goal.

Trull Leads Oilers To Win Over Boston

HOUSTON (AP) — Don Trull spearheaded Houston's aerial attack and Hoyle Granger ran for a pair of touchdowns Sunday as the Oilers thumped Boston

45-17 in an American Football League season finale for both teams.

Trull, released by the Patriots earlier this season, bombarded his former teammates with touchdown passes of nine yards to Alvin Ried and six yards to Jim Beirne.

Houston's other scores came on a 22-yard pass interception by Ken Houston, runs of 12 and one yard by Granger, Wayne Walker's 16-yard field goal and one-yard plunge by Woody Campbell.

The Oilers, selected by many to repeat as AFL Eastern Division champions, clinched second place with the victory and finished with a 7-7 season mark.

Boston closed the year at 4-10.

Dietrich Game Tops Tuesday Hoop Slate

Dietrich meets Castleford, a fellow the record might be in jeopardy. "We have lost three men with broken bones in freak accidents the past 10 days," he says. "One of them broke his foot running down some stairs, another broke his thumb warming up on the mat and the third finished breaking a toe by driving off it. It was cracked during football."

The feature brings Dietrich, fresh off a hard-learned decision over Hagerman, to Castleford, which has lost only one of four games this year. The teams are very similar, with the exception that Castleford is a bit older.

Both have good quickness out front and can turn on tough

In the conference meetings, the Richfielders, who have won three wins in four tries, will travel to Bliss, where the Hawks hope Joe Leach will be back. If not Richfield will have a solid height advantage. Carey, coming into the win column at Lendore Friday, will travel to Clifton County where the Muskers have one strict to speed in posting a 1-3 mark.

The Glens Ferry—Mountain Home affair will take place at Mountain Home.

Servicemen Find Phoenix Ideal For Recuperation

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — "For come," he said after an airport S. Sgt. William D. Carlson, it's a greeting from a boy and girl from a honeymoon.

For Pvt. Michael Brooks, it will be a chance to swim in clean water.

They are among 54 servicemen who have completed tours in Vietnam and were flown to Phoenix from Saigon for a week's free vacation in Camelback Inn as rewards for outstanding service.

Carlson of San Diego, Calif., was joined by Khaly, the Vietnamese he married little more than three months ago.

Brooks of Houston, Tex., said that after his Vietnam duty, "I've had enough of dirty water for awhile."

Capt. K. T. Henry of Columbus, Ga., was under a blistering rocket attack in the "rocket belt" around Saigon less than a week ago. He's a 10-year Army veteran, a member of the 10th Light Infantry Brigade. As the ranking officer, he was in charge of the men on their 36-hour flight from Saigon. They stopped in San Francisco only long enough to swap their fatigues for dress uniforms.

"I'd like to express our appreciation for this very warm welcome," he said after an airport luncheon meeting at National Hotel.

Mrs. Jack Bodily gave the invitation, Mrs. Fred Dickson, president, announced the club will hold its annual Christmas luncheon party at noon Dec. 16 in the dining room of National Hotel. Each member is asked to bring a white elephant for the gift exchange.

"It bolsters our confidence in the American mission; it's quite refreshing in view of the disbelieving voices we hear about in Vietnam. I've never seen anything like it."

"Yesterday in Saigon, today in Arizona," said Sgt. Danny Smith of St. Paul, Ariz. "I can't believe it."

Dates were provided for the single men and one of them asked the hotel's social director, "Can we leave the hotel?"

"No passes are necessary — you're not in jail," she said. "Consider yourself off base."

Inspired Prophets Were Phenomenon

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

PROMPT-TO-SERVE. A hard question beat at the heart of the world. Who owns it? And for what intent?

"What is his name?" puzzled Moses, more than 3,200 years ago, while his enslaved people toiled under the Egyptian oppressor, Pharaoh Ramses II. To whom, or what, does it may belong? Where lies his real allegiance?

The answer remained searching, elusive, unbound to manageable equations or definitions. "I am who I am."

It was mystifying, the central enigma.

But clues accumulated through time and events, chiefly for Christians in the birth of a few-called Jesus, the manifestation of "the mystery hidden for ages," as described by the apostle Paul.

That is the content of Christ-mas.

But it wasn't an isolated occurrence. Jesus stood in a long succession. He came in turn in the unfolding of history's disclosure. He was part of a process. It foreshadowed Him, it pointed to Him, before and since.

Its prior agents were the Old Testament prophets.

They were the precursors. They witnessed to Him. He said, "Everything written about Me in the law . . . and the prophets must be fulfilled." They prefigured the "Elect One," "the Anointed," the "Day" of the Lord.

They were a fiercely challenging phenomenon, among the most disturbing men ever known.

Like the One they preceded, they defied established systems. They were protesters, rebels, reformers, idealists in a groping confused era. They propounded a lofty concept of man's role and right obligations. Like Jesus, they also had it rough.

Typically, they were scorned, ridiculed, flogged, imprisoned and sometimes killed. They were lonely, anguished men often pursued as fugitives, marked as traitors.

"Get away from me!" the Egyptian monarch roared at the prophet Moses, who had unleashed a staggering slave revolt in 1280 B.C. "Take heed . . . never see my face again or you shall die."

But the people miraculously grew tired of the grinding tyranny, gave them the fire, vivid dramatic impression of an ultimate Sovereign allied with man, of a supreme Deliverer, freeing men from their chains.

And the continuing line of prophets thundered that defense of human dignity, of help for the imprisoned, of strength for the down-trodden and abused, of hospitality to the stranger and alien, of peace among peoples and equity for every man.

"Nah!" they were called, "speakers" or "announcers" of the divine will for men. They were not soothsayers or fortune-tellers, practicing occult arts, but they discerned keenly the shape of the times, its directions and impending consequences.

They were intensely conscientious men, sensitive to God's vision of the world, attuned to it and conveying it through their own particular human perspectives and temperaments. And they snatched the complicity of the proud and powerful. Unlike temple-confined pagan religions, they saw divine concern engaged with history, and they hurled their exhortations at kings, governments and social orders.

"You are the man!" the prophet Nathan blazed at the great King David, after leading him to sternly condemn another "man," described by Nathan as a rich landlord who had seized a poor peasant's only sheep for a feast. Much-married David, at about 1000 B.C., had taken a soldier's only wife, Bathsheba.

Although the rulers sometimes had their own fawning circle of seers and dervishlike "prophets," who served only to please their superiors and sanctify official policy, the genuine truth-bearers, the real prophets, were ruggedly uncompromising.

"You troubler of Israel!" King Ahab flared at the prophet Elijah when that desert mystic, clad in hairskin and leather girdle, appeared about 850 B.C. to condemn the national idol-worship of Baal and Astarte promoted by the queen, Jezebel.

Condemned, hunted, hiding near the end of his life in a cave, Elijah sorrowed that other prophets had been "slain by the sword, and . . . evan . . . only . . . left, and they seek my life."

But others would arise after he vanished in whirlwind.

They were agitated, indignant men, pained by rampant greed, alarmed at exploitation of the poor, passionately concerned for human welfare, as if they mirrored the very pathos of God, at man's callousness.

"Hear this, you who trample upon the needy!" declared the rural prophet Amos, a tree-tender from Tekoa, around 750 B.C. He warned that divine justice would "smite the capitals until the thresholds shake."

Fearless, driven by an inner fire, they flung their jolting admonitions at a flabby, delinquent society, and as happens in every age, this drew stern reprisals.

Amos was accused of conspiracy. "The land is not able to bear his words," agents reported to Israel's King Jeroboam II, whose crushing taxes had left the impoverished farmers enriched the riotous cult of Marduk.

As with other prophets, Amos's message was that a universal Creator of the world is actively involved in its affairs, interwoven with men and their institutions, and that their right function is to advance human betterment, not stand patting.

"This says the Lord God . . . I hate, I despise your feasts, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies," Amos proclaimed. "But let Justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream."

Amid the confusion and decadence of the times, however, the prophets also sensed an eventual rejuvination, the burst of new clarity, cleansing and universal dominion wrought by a divine emissary, whom Christians see as Jesus.

"And I will make him the first-born, the highest of the kings of the earth," goes Psalm 89, one of those strangely future Davidic psalms.

Airport Plan Discussed At Rupert Meet

RUPERT—A regional airport proposal was brought to light again recently during the regular meeting of the Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

Bill Hanes, manager of the city's Idaho Power Co. office and December program chairman, discussed the proposal in the absence of Neil Weir, ached speaker.

Mr. Hanes explained that the 39th Legislature passed Special Bill 108 which established five regions. Malad Valley is located in the South Central Region, as are seven other Magic Valley counties.

Five sites were originally proposed for the airport in the local region. Mr. Hanes explained, but the field has been narrowed to two, following several studies by various agencies.

Those sites are located site A-1 and site B. Site A-1 is located northeast of the Perrine Bridge and would cost an estimated $5.5 million. With 60 per cent participating federal funds, however, the cost to the Minidoka County taxpayers would mean a 1.88 mill levy.

The site B is located a mile north of Hansen Bridge interchange and would cost an estimated $2.8 million. After federal aid, the cost to the Minidoka County taxpayer would be 1.22 mill.

The difference in cost, Mr. Hanes said, is due in part to the problem in clearing site A-1 and in the location of the railroad tracks.

The speaker also noted that a movement is under way in the area to have the Special Bill 108, Section 5, amended. At present the section states that a Regional Airport authority may be established by the voters in the region voting at a special election called after petitions had been signed by not less than five per cent of the electors in each precinct in each county in the region.

Amended, the section would read that the petitions would need to be signed by not less than five per cent of the electors in each county in the region, eliminating the word precinct.

Ex-Elmore Man Receives Colonel Rank

GLENNS PERRY — Addison, W. Stone, son of Mrs. Clara J. Stone, Glenn Perry, has been promoted to colonel in the U.S. Air Force.

The presentation of the new Eagle pins was made in Thailand where Col. Stone is commander of the 818th Military Airlift Support Squadron at Don Muang Royal Thai AFB.

Col. Stone was commissioned in 1944 through the aviation cadet program, and is a 20-year veteran with more than 6,000 hours flying time.

He was graduated from the Glenn Ferry High School and subsequently received his B.S. degree in education in 1965 from the University of Idaho. He is a member of the Delta Chi social fraternity.

During World War II he saw action in the European Theater as a C-47 pilot, ferrying troops and supplies from England over Europe. During the past five years his flying routes have taken him to all major points in Southeast Asia. He has also served in Germany and Japan.

Col. Stone's wife is the former Theresa Dvorack of West Texas. They have five children. William is in reserve officers training program at the University of Idaho; Thomas at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo.; Kathy in Savannah, Ga.; Marlo in Collinsville, Ill.; and Ann, who is living with her parents in Vietnam.

ELEPHANTS SLAUGHTERED — JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Ivory poachers in south Sumatra are slaughtering diminishing herds of Sumatran elephants so fast for their valuable tusks the species may soon become extinct.

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Faced with the possibility of having too many grapefruit, Florida citrusmen hope to get help from people who have too many pounds.
